

MIODRAG RANKOVIĆ

Member of the Supervisory Board

Joint stock company Elektroprivreda Srbije

Miodrag Ranković is a representative of EPS Trade Union in the Supervisory Board and the chief foreman for the auxiliary machinery of Kolubara MB.

He dedicated his career to Kolubara Mining Basin, where he has been employed on various positions for the past 40 years – as station operator, foreman, chief foremen and system supervisor.

He has been active as the president of trade union, since 1995, and for 17 years he headed EPS Kolubara Union. He successfully carried out top-level negotiations on collective agreements, improving the rights of employees in accordance with social and economic changes and economic environment development.

He is a miner.

Married, father of two.