Potential Tenderer asked QUESTION No. 32.1:

„The actual list of of guarantees issued by the banks on behalf of PE EPS and on behalf of all subsidiaries from the system is not submitted to external users.”

Potential Tenderer asked QUESTION No. 32.2:

„Is it necessary that in the event of submission of tenders for several portions with different loan conditions submit physically separated tenders for each portion or is it enough to submit one tender that shall include all tenders for several lots by submitting needed forms in as many copies as there are different lots.”

ANSWER of the Employer to QUESTION No. 32.2 is:

„In item 4.4. of the Tender Documents – Portions, inter alia, it is stated that “ In that event the Bidder shall give as many offers as there are different loan conditions per portions (identical lots), so that they may be evaluated separately per portions (identical lots). Therefore, in the event of tender submission for several portions with different loan conditions it is necessary to submit as much tenders as there are different loan conditions, i.e. one tender should include several portions with the same loan conditions.”

Also, please take a look at answer no. 5.8 to the question of potential tenderer (published on 21.10.2014 on Public Procurement Portal and EPS website), where it is stated that if the tenderer offers different conditions per portions, it should submit as many as there are different conditions, for each:

- Form no. 1
- Form no. 4 with Table no. 1 and

Model Agreement.”

These additional clarifications are submitted by email to the applicant and are published on Public Procurement Portal and web site of the Employer.
