

MIODRAG BOGDANOVIĆ

Joint Stock Company Elektroprivreda Srbije

Miodrag Bogdanović is a mechanical and information engineer and one of the leading experts in managing IT projects and IT teams in large systems and the development of IT solutions aimed at digitizing business processes.

In the past seven years, he has managed the ICT Department in the Joint Stock Company Elektroprivreda Srbije. Along with his team, he managed to improve the ICT Department significantly and establish unified IT at the level of the entire Joint Stock Company Elektroprivreda Srbije.

He started his career in 1983, at the Military Technical Institute Belgrade, and for 25 years he was a leader of IT teams, worked on developing IT infrastructure and digitizing business processes in large retail chains and insurance. In addition to IT, he also led teams on optimization of business processes, establishment of new standards and business procedures, where excellent results were achieved in reducing costs and significantly increasing productivity.

He has dedicated his entire career to development of young staff, building very professional and efficient IT teams, investing in staff with qualities and in this way, he established the sustainability of the company's business and creating an environment of constant learning and advancement.

In his career, he has received multiple recognitions and awards for his loyalty to the company, teamwork and dedication to achieving common goals.

He is married and has two sons.

He is fluent in Russian and English language.